 List
 L. R. Edwards, Clk.

I make and award this my last will. I bequeath to my daughter, Lucy J. Appleton, the use of all my land, negroes, stock of all kind and every thing I am possessor of her lifetime for it to be kept together for her support and at her death I leave to Mary R. Simmons negro girl.
 Ellen and Margaret and their and equal part with what children of Lucy J. Appleton which may be living and if any of my grand children shall die before the same to the age of fifteen for their one part to be equally divided between the others that may be then living. it is my will that Martha D. Simmons and Mary R.
 Simmons do have when heard free of charge as long as they as they may think proper to live in the family or such time as they may wish. 17th 1856.
 Mary R. Simmons
