

road, and consequently adjoining said road, and further bounded by the lands of Abner Dole, the lands formally owned by John M. Neal, and the lands of Edward Brewster, and supposed to contain one hundred acres of land. I further give and bequeath to her the said Elizabeth Brown all the personal or chattel property of mine which may or shall be found on these and lands before given to her at the time of my death of every kind whatsoever and I further give and bequeath to the said Elizabeth Brown a considerable part of the lands which I purchased of Debra Sewell, say that part of said land lying on the west side of a certain rail fence hereby making said fence a line thereby attaching perhaps some four or five acres of land which I purchased of the legatee of Hoady Ruel ever due which fence is erected and there as I suppose at least the most of it a little east of a south course from the chappel road so called the lands formally owned by Thomas Houson dead along said Houson line of marked trees near a west course to Miles McColl's land same course along said McColl's line to the land formally owned by Debra McColl dead then nearly a north west course it now being said Miles McColl's line to the said Chappel road then nearly an east course along said road to the beginning exposed to custom about one hundred acres of land. I further give and bequeath to the said Elizabeth Brown my vehicle or Jersey Wagon together with the best set of suitable harness to said Wagon, also the Bayman I call increase raised from or by said man, and I further give and bequeath to said Elizabeth Brown cash or good Bonds to the amount of two hundred dollars this sum as well as all the above and foregoing gifts to her the said Elizabeth Brown and to her heirs and assigns forever.

5thly. I give and bequeath to George Hunt who has also served me as an apprentice the sum of three hundred dollars in good Bonds or money to him said Hunt & to his heirs forever.

6thly. I give and bequeath to Thomas Hunt who has served me as an apprentice the lands which I purchased of Donathj Drake, William Drake and wife, James Drake and wife, Edmund Barnes and wife, it being the land whereon James Griffin now lives say Sept. 1st 1856, supposed to contain about one hundred and fifty acres bounded by the lands of James Baring say the run of the Cypress Swamp, then up said Swamp to Matilda Perry's land along said Swamp to John R. Rockwell's land, then leaving said Swamp nearly a south course along said Rockwell's line of marked trees of various courses or directions to William Drake's land then said Drake's line of marked trees to Lucet Horri's land, then said Horri's line of marked trees to the land in which I let them now live say Sept. 1st 1856, then nearly an east course along of marked trees to the run of the before named Cypress Swamp as well, then a line for James Baring, which lands and appurtenances thereto belonging I as aforesaid give to the aforesaid Thomas Hunt, to him and to his heirs and assigns forever. I further give and bequeath to the said Thomas Hunt the lot of land whereon Donathj Drake's now lives say Sept. 1st 1856, beginning at the fork of Boon's road so called, thence along Boon's road a south west course or nearly so to the lot of B. Carter's land then near a south course mostly a line of marked trees to said fishhead, thence along said road so far as to become parallel with a line of marked trees to designate the line of a certain acre of land deeds by myself to trustees of the Episcopal Church call'd &c. Methodist who do or ought to know the other boundaries of said acre of land on which are this meeting house stands from the corner the center of said fishhead parallel as above named a course for the heirs of Debra McColl then nearly an east course along said line so far and no further than a straight course clearly on the east side of a boundary line thirty in part including the house and small lot of land in and on which being said lot now live, say 1st Sept. 1856, further said lot is enclosed by fence clearly on the north end of said lot fence then nearly a west course from the northeast corner of said lot to the corner of said fishhead then end of said road to the fork named by Boon's road as first with the bound-aries of this lot or parcel of land last above named to him the said Thomas Hunt and to his heirs and assigns forever. I further give and bequeath to said Thomas Hunt a set of Smith tools or as nearly so as can well be picked out of all my Smith Tools and I further give & bequeath to said Thomas Hunt One hundred dollars in cash or good Bonds to him the said Thomas Hunt to him and to his heirs and assigns forever.

7thly. I give and bequeath to Sally F. Brown who now lives with me during the duty of an apprentice all she and me all my lands which formerly belonged to my Brother Benjamin.