David Harris
 Will

I, David Harris of the County of Southampton, State of Virginia, being of sound mind and memory do make and constitute this my last will and testament in manner and form following to give to my wife Mary Jane during her natural life the entire use and benefit of the lands and the slaves attached comprising the farm where I at present reside, and one third of all moneys due me by bond or account at the time of my decease to her and her heirs forever. I give to my infant son David Harris my gold watch and chain. I give to my two children E. J. Harris and Dr. J. Harris my silver ware. I give and bequeath the remaining portion of my estate with the reversion of property loaned my wife to be equally divided between my surviving children. In the event of the death of either of my children before marriage or before attaining their majority I give such deceased child or children's portion to the surviving child or children. Should all of my children die before marriage or before attaining their majority I bequeath the portion of my estate descending to them to be equally divided between my friend Dr. Thomas and the eldest child of E. J. M. Magraw to them and their heirs forever. I hereby authorize my executor to sell my farm in Greenville County and also my interest in the vine, stock, and farming utensils on the said farm and contract for one half of the whole upon such terms as he may deem best for the welfare of my estate. I desire the operations of said farm to be continued as at present until the sale of the land is effected. I hereby constitute and appoint my friend E. J. M. Magraw executor of this my last will and testament, and lastingly authorize, I hereby appoint my friend E. J. M. Magraw
