

I solemnly before the County of Southampton, November 15th 1858.

This last will and testament of Anne Harris dec^d was proved by the oaths of J. D. H. Drury, J. E. Briggs, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and was changed & added to the records. And on motion of G. A. Musgrave, the executor therein named who made oath and together with Edwin Harris & James S. Darden, his securities, who justified on oath as to their sufficiency, entered in and acknowledge above in the presence of fifty thousand Dollars credited and according to law, certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form.

Test,

L. R. Edwards, C. C.

In the name of God, Amen! I Joel Vick of the County of Southampton and State of Virginia, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say:

1st After my decease I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate by my Executor herein after named.

2nd I leave to my beloved wife Jane Vick all the balance of my estate real personal and perishable during the term of her life or widowhood; and it is my will and desire that my daughter Elizabeth Frances Vick shall remain and live with her mother during her mother's lifetime, if she chooses or wishes to do so.

3rd After the death or marriage of my said wife I give and bequeath to my said daughter Elizabeth Frances Vick and the heirs forever, that part of my tract of land whereon the houses are situated (and whereon I now reside) lying on the north side of the branch which crosses my land containing one hundred and thirty four acres more or less. I also give and bequeath to her, one buffet and cabinet, one feather bed and furniture (the bed she calls hers, one clock, one chest, one desk, and six chairs, one wash table, one pot and hooks.

4th I give and bequeath to my daughter Edith Ann Vick one dollar.

5th I give and bequeath to my grandson Ralphy S. Vick one dollar.

6th I give and bequeath to my son David Vick one feather bed and furniture (the bed he calls his.)

7th I give and bequeath to my son Caleb E. Vick one feather bed and furniture (up the stairs.)

8th I give and bequeath to my Daughter Sally Jane Vick one feather bed and furniture.

9th I give and bequeath to my son Chris A. Vick, my shot gun.

10th After the death or marriage of my said wife I desire that all the balance of my land and all the balance of my personal or perishable estate which may then be in existence be sold on the ordinary terms of such sales, and the moneys arising from the said sales, together with any other money belonging to my estate, I give and bequeath to my following named six children to be equally divided between them to wit, Julia Ann, King Vick, David Vick, Sally Jane Vick, Chris A. Vick, and Caleb E. Vick to them and their heirs forever.

11th In case my said wife should marry I then give and bequeath to her such part of my estate as she would be entitled to under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia when I to die intestate.

12th And lastly, I hereby nominate and appoint my friends David Darden and Thomas L. Darden, Executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking and annulling all other or former wills or testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 16th day of August 1858.