

will and testament in manner and form as follows.

First, I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Marilla V. Davis one green bedstead and bed and furniture; also one kind of drawers and her hair dresser and secondly, I give and bequeath to my grand son Edgar W. Davis one horse and furniture to him and his heirs forever.

Third, I give and bequeath to my son Madison V. Davis all moneys in debt which he may owe me within five of my death, with the exception of fifty dollars of said debt; which said fifty dollars (out of said debt) I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Marilla V. Davis to her and her heirs forever.

Fourth, I give and bequeath to my son Madison V. Davis all of my house hold and kitchen furniture, all of my Mules, horses, cattle, pigs, crops of every kind and all of my real estate, of every kind not herein otherwise disposed of; but this clause is not intended to include money represented money as may arise from the sale of crops of any kind which latter is not included, and all other personal estate.

My intention I wish to be plain. My son Madison and myself are residing in Copartownship. It may be said I wish him to have all of the crops then on hand or should my debt and the money be still due for them or collected and not have for said crops I wish him to have the money as he would the crops present, & they had not been sold.

Fifth, I should my moneys be left of my estate after the payment of my first debts, and the payment of the specific legacies herein bequeathed, & after one bequeathed out of that balance. So remaining and found to be due (that is to say, all moneys that may be due me except that arising from the sale of crops which said crop money I have disposed of in the clause next preceding this), to my grandson Edgar W. Davis one hundred dollars to him and his heirs forever. The remainder of the said money estate not alluded to in this clause, I wish to be equally divided between my Daughters Devilla V. Davis and Maria V. Davis. As to the said Devilla and her heirs forever. I should the said Maria not less my lawful heir to attain to the age of twenty one years, then the portion of my money estate hereby in this clause given to her, I give and bequeath to Madison V. Davis and his heirs forever. But should Maria leave any heir or heirs to reach the age of twenty one years, in that case, I give and bequeath the said balance as her share, to be equally divided between the said heirs to her and their heirs forever.

Sixth, I hereby appoint Madison V. Davis executor to this my last will and testament.

Witness the following signature and seal, this 30th Decr 1860. A. D. 1860.
Signed, sealed and acknowledged in the presence of the undersigned witnesses, who signed in presence of the testator and in presence of each other.
