

The Commissioner states specially that Mr. A. Jones was also the guardian of his son Robert A. Jones, and that he acted his guardian's business before him at the same time with this account, and that the Commissioner brought them out at the same time, he found that Mr. A. Jones had paid but one account as guardian of his son Robert A. Jones, but after the termination of the guardianship which took place in 1851 Mr. A. Jones when it appears upon record his guardianship account with his son paid off money as an executor, advanced him money &c. and the Commissioner in settling this account has brought in the full balance of the guardianship account with interest up to this time and allowed Mr. A. Jones all the money with interest which he advanced and the amount due to him from his son.

All of which is respectfully submitted by Wm. H. & Thos. Commissioner.
