I Theron A. Scoggins being of lawful age and sound mind do make my last will and Testament

1st after paying all of my just debts, should there be any left, I request that my wife Martha Ann should be left in full possession of the residue to keep and to hold for the benefit of herself and my children so long as she remains my widow Should she change her life by marriage or insanity she is to have what the law directs - 2nd In case of marriage with another person my children is not to live with her only as a visit. so long as they have one dime to prevent it afterwards. I call on my friends to get them in good families of proserable or bind them to the same that is under the tune of good report.

3rd That George D. Old and Godwin Parker shall take in charge my hole estate whichever is agreeable to law and pay over to person or order as directed in this my last will.
