March 10th 1853.

In the Name of God amen: I John Crumpler, being in Sound mind and good memory, do make and constitute that this is my last Will and Testament. I bequeath my land on the South Side of the road whereon my Shop Stands, likewise the Land I purchased of Benet Saddle, on the North Side of my Horse track, bounded by the Lands Geo Holliman decd. and Lands of Benet L. Drury, to Matilda Diggs & her six girl children untill her son Robert Cladins Diggs, becomes of age, 21 yrs. Should he live to arrive at that age, I give it to him, Should he not live to be that age, I give it to the Three youngest: Nancy, Arindna, & Patty.

All of my Chattle Estate sold with the exception of Six Barrels Corn, and what Bacon can be found and every thing else sold should they not be enough to pay all my just debts, I wish for the Land whereon I live sold, but if there is enough without the Land I bequeath it to my daughter, Arminia Ann Crumpler, untill her son John becomes of age, and give it to him, now I Conclude and finish my Will.
