

of the said balance of my Estate.

Item 6th: In Case my said William H. Velvin is still living, or known to be living by any of my family one year after my decease, I give and bequeath the remaining fourth part of my Estate to him and his heirs, but in the event nothing is heard of his being alive, before, or at that time, and my two daughters Margaret J. and Nancy A. Velvin should then be living, I give and bequeath the same as follows, my said three grand children one third part, to Nancy A. Velvin, one third part, and to my said three grand children one third part: but in case either of my said daughters Margaret J. or Nancy A. Velvin should die without an heir lawfully begotten of her and body, I then give one half of the legacy intended for my said son William H. Velvin, to the surviving one of my said two daughters and her heirs, and the other half to my said three grand children and their heirs, or to such of them as may then be living: and in case both of my said daughters should die before the time specified, that is one year after my decease, leaving no lawfully begotten heir, or heirs of their bodies, I give and bequeath the same to my said grand children and their heirs.

Item 7th: And lastly, I hereby nominate and appoint my friend Elliott C. Ferguson Executor of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all other or former Wills or Testaments by me heretofore made. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal the 30th day of January in the year of my Lord Eighteen hundred and Sixty Six.

Signed Sealed and acknowledged to be the last Will and Testament of the Testatrix, in presence of us.
