

in full satisfaction & payment of the legacy left her by her Grandmother, Mrs. Hill. I give and devise to my two sons G. S. Urquhart & Mordred M. Urquhart to be held by them in joint tenancy, eight hundred acres of Land, to be laid off, by a Competent Surveyor, as nearly as may be as follows; Beginning at the point where the Mill run branch enters into the Nottoway River, thence along said branch to the point at which the Cannons branch enters into said Mill run branch; thence along high water marks on the western side of said branch to its head, or to such other point above the same, as that a line run from said point to the Nottoway River, parallel or nearly so to the Mill run branch, will constitute the Northern boundary of the said tract of eight hundred acres, the Nottoway River being the Western boundary of the same. I also give & bequeath to my son M. M. Urquhart, my riding horse known by the name of "Bella". I give & devise to my son, Mordred H. Urquhart, four hundred acres of Land adjacent to the dwelling house & including the dwelling house, out houses & garden, given and devised to my wife for life, but subject to her life estate in the same. Which said tract of four hundred acres is bounded as follows; Beginning at the point where the Cannons branch empties into the Mill run branch, thence along the dividing line between my land & the land of John W. Gurley, thence along the dividing line between my land and the land belonging to the Estate of Charles Simmons, thence along the dividing line between my land and the land belonging to H. M. Batts & if necessary, along the line of J. M. Arnold, to a point, from which a line run to the North-east corner of the tract given & devised to G. S. Urquhart & M. M. Urquhart, will constitute the Northern boundary of the said tract of four hundred acres - the line of G. S. Urquhart and M. M. Urquhart, being the Western boundary of the same. I give & devise all the residue of my Land in the State of Virginia, to my son A. B. Urquhart & my daughters R. W. Urquhart & Lucy A. Urquhart, to be equally divided between them. And in making said division, I desire my Executors to select three disinterested Gentlemen of the County, to aid and assist them in the same. I direct my Executors to pay to my sons A. B. Urquhart & G. S. Urquhart & to my daughter R. W. Urquhart, each the sum of Five hundred dollars in full satisfaction & payment of the legacy made to them by their Grandmother Mrs. B. Hill. I give & bequeath to my sons A. B. Urquhart, G. S. Urquhart, M. M. Urquhart, & W. H. Urquhart & my daughters R. W. Urquhart & Lucy A. Urquhart, to be equally divided between them, all my Stock of horses, mules, cattle, sheep & hogs, in the State of Virginia, except the Carriage horses given to my wife, and the riding horse given to my son M. M. Urquhart, unless it be necessary to sell the same in order to pay the legacy of five hundred dollars, each, made to my daughters M. A. H. Sillard & M. S. Sand & R. W. Urquhart, & my sons A. B. Urquhart & G. S. Urquhart, by their Grandmother Mrs. B. Hill. I give & bequeath to my sons A. B. Urquhart, G. S. Urquhart, M. M. Urquhart & W. H. Urquhart & my daughters R. W. Urquhart & Lucy A. Urquhart, to be equally divided between them, all the money arising from the sale of my perishable Estate in Virginia - that may remain after the payment of my debts & the legacies of Three thousand dollars, each, to my daughters M. A. H. Sillard & M. S. Sand, herein before made. After the death of my wife, I give & devise my tract of Land, in the State of North Carolina purchased from Dr. H. Effert to all my children to be equally divided between them; & also share the Stock, if that given to my wife for life, as may be remaining in the farm known as the "Oconee" at the time of her decease, to be equally divided between them. I give & bequeath to my son A. B. Urquhart
