Commissioner's Office,
Jerusalem, Dec. 31st 1860

To the County Court of Southampton County,
Your Commissioner reports to Court that on the 15th day of November last, at the request of Ludlow Lawrence, the administrator of the Estate of Nathan Turner deceased, he appointed the 21st day of December at his Office, at the Court house of said County, for receiving proof of debts or demands against the said deceased or his Estate, and posted a Notice of such time and place, to the Creditors of the said Estate and all others concerned at the probate of the said Court house of said County, on the first day of the December term of the County Court of said County, to wit, at Jerusalem. and December Term last, that the several Creditors of the said Estate who accounts are mentioned in the foregoing account appeared before the Commissioner at his said Office, upon the day specified in the Notice, and exhibited and proved to the satisfaction of your Commissioner their several debts or demands against the said deceased or his Estate, as set forth in the said account. Upon which your Commissioner has computed the interest up to the date of this report, and classified them according to their respective legal dignities, and on the date of this Report find the aggregate amount of said debts or demands inclusive of interest to be ($488.28) Four hundred and eighty eight dollars and twenty eight cents. Given under my hand as Commissioner of the said County, the day and year first aforesaid.

James W. Miller, Commissioner

Southampton County, In the Clerk's Office, February the 17th 1870
This Account of Ludlow Lawrence's administration of the Estate of Nathan Turner died and the account of debts or demands against the said Nathan Turner, or his Estate, was this day returned and filed for exception. And at a Court held for the said County, on the 21st day of March 1870, the said account having been lawfully and upwards in the Clerk's Office, and no exception being filed thereto, they were severally examined, confirmed, and ordered to be recorded.
