

or security for said A. W. Corfield, that so much of said bonds shall be taken and paid into my estate as shall be required to reimburse me or my estate for money paid as such security. The property left to my wife in the fourth clause during her life, at her death, I give, bequeath and devise to my son Luther R. Edwards and to his heirs and assigns forever. I do moreover give to my son Luther R. Edwards one fifth of all notes held by me against said Luther R. Edwards to him and his heirs forever. I do moreover direct that the above mentioned property given and bequeathed to my wife may be in lieu of any and all other other estate she might claim in my estate.

The remainder of my lands, chattels and other estate, not herein before disposed, I give and bequeath as follows: To my daughter Indiana V. Corfield one fourth part, to my daughter Mary to Mary Ann Stephens, Martha Howell, and Louisa R. Ballard, children of my daughter Elizabeth White, one fourth (jointly) on condition that they take care of and support their mother Elizabeth White during her life, it is herein moreover provided in regard to the above mentioned clause, that the bond that may be held by me against my daughter Mary A. Drayman, shall be applied to the paying of any money due by me as security for A. W. Corfield, and that the remainder shall go part of the sixth clause.

The estate given in the foregoing clause to my daughters Indiana V. Corfield and Mary A. Drayman is given them as their estate for their sole and separate use and estate.

Lastly, I appoint my son Luther R. Edwards as the Executor of this my last will and Testament, In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 27th day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy one (1871).
