At the request of the Executrix, the Commissioner of State Savings at present that pursuant to an Order of the County Court of Portsmouth, County, entered at the May Term 1878, the said was directed to invest the sum of Five Thousand Dollars $5000.00 in Real Estate, so that the balance due the Estate now in the hands of the Executrix, in addition to the sum of Five Hundred and thirty Six Dollars, $536.18 is the said amount of Five Thousand Dollars, which, the Executrix in pursuance of said Order of Court transmits to J.R. Taylor of Portsmouth County Va. at the 21st day of August 1878, taking his bond for same, secured by a Trust of Trust in all of his Real Estate, in which said his wife joins.
 The said bond was then exhibited to the said Commissioner. He intent had been charged the said Executrix because the money as it was collected, was deposited with the Banking House of Bain & Brother, who refused to pay any interest unless the Executrix would guarantee that the money should remain with them over three months, & as the Executrix was seeking under said Order of Court safe investments, he did not give such guarantee, & consequently received no interest on his deposit.
 All of which is respectfully Submitted,

J. K. Nelson.
