At the request of the Exor the Com's States specially that when he qualified as Executor there were several debts against the Estate of A.S. Pope deceased secured by Deeds of Trust upon all the Real & personal Estate, amounting in the aggregate to about $3000. The Executor had reason to believe that the beneficiaries under said Deeds of Trust intended to offer at Public auction, all of said property to satisfy their claims. He was satisfied that should such sale be made in view of the financial stringency then prevailing it would be at a sacrifice. He was confident that by paying off these claims he could save for the widow & infant children, first in name, all of the real Estate, which is not only valuable, but would afford them a permanent
