Received May 2, 1878 of N. J. Allman and Geo. W.
 Brittle Exors. of G. E. C. Brittle decd. the sum said to be due us by above ac of Comr Sebrall N. J. Allman } Georgianna ^{by} Spivey
 G. W. Brittle } Mary Madry
 Geo W. F. R. Brittle } per Georgianna ^{by} Spivey Charles Edwin Brittle } J. M. Sebrall, atty for Guyton Brittle Sylvia A. Williams } George W. Brittle L. J. ^{man} ^x ^{has} Dakins } guardian for William Brittle
 C. A. Pitman

The Comr states specially that by the last will and Testament of G. E. C. Brittle, decd. his Exors were directed to pay over the following special legacies - viz: one of $200.⁰⁰ in currency to N. J. Allman, one of $100.⁰⁰ in currency to Geo. W. Brittle and all his horses or mules and farming implements to Jack Powell col. That he loaned the tract of land to Jack Powell during his natural life, provided he would pay the sum of $25.⁰⁰ annually to George W. Brittle Since the will has been admitted to probate the said Geo. W. Brittle has sold his interest in the Jack Powell who has thereby been discharged from the payment of said annual charge. The said tract of land was after the death of Jack Powell, to be the property of said Geo. W. Brittle all these special legacies have been paid and after costs of administration & payments of debts - the sum of $1200.⁰⁰ remained in the hands of the Exors. to the credit of the Est. which has been distributed among all of his heirs, the children of his brothers & sisters, as will be seen from above ap. all of which is respectfully submitted
