

The Commission State specially that (as will be seen from also also up) the administrator has paid out more funds than has been received by him for the Estate, but proceeds to his death Joseph G. Campbell made purchases of Real Estate from E. K. Smith and Frank Holland, exceeding his Note therefor, Several of these (were unpaid and paid due at the time of his death, and believing it to be for the best interest of the Estate, the administrator paid off these several Notes, and secured title I add for said Real Estate, the rents from which he hopes in a few years will wholly discharge the balance due as per also up. All of which is respectfully Submitted.
