

of Two hundred Dollars, conditioned as the last devise, which said is ordered to be recorded. Certificate is granted the said John D. Johnson, for obtaining a probate, of the said Will, in due form.

Teste, J. R. Edwards Secy

In the Name of God, Amen, I, Nathaniel Jones of the County of Fauquier, and State of Virginia, do make and publish this my last will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say, Item 1st After my death, I desire my Executors who I will hereafter name, to pay all of my burial expenses and all of my just debts, out of my property that I leave.

Item 2^d I give to my wife Caroline Jones, only what she has alone her out of my Estate.

Item 3^d I give to my Grand Daughter, Letitia Vichy, Daughter of Virginia Coffey all of the balance of my property of every kind including my wife's Dower, to her and her heirs forever, I do not do this because I have no more than any other Grand Child, but because she has no one to provide for her.

Item 4th And lastly, I hereby nominate my friend, James J. Darden, my Executor to the my last will and Testament, and request the Court not to require Security of him, reserving all other heretofore made by me, In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed my seal this 4th Day of March 1880.

Nathaniel Jones
James J. Darden

At Court held for the County of Fauquier, on the 21st day of June A. D. 1880. This last will and Testament of Nathaniel Jones Decd. was proved by the Oaths of James J. Darden and Charles Knight the two subscribing witnesses thereto, and ordered to be recorded.
James J. Darden, being in Court, refused to take upon himself the burden of the execution of the Will.
