

St. Pierre the Executive Director, who made great arrangements to law, and together against R. M. Stephenson, his property, (who justified in Court as to his sufficiency,) entered into an agreement & bond in the presence of eight hundred and eighty Candidates as the law directs, which bond is ordered, docketed, recorded. Certificate is granted the said John A. St. Pierre for obtaining a patent of the said office in and from the State.

Factor, L. R. Edwards & Co,

The Estate of L. P. Phipps, dec'd.

I was with Mr. E. Murphy, one of his friends

[illegible]