At a court held for the county of Southampton the 14th day of July 1785. This account current of the Estate of Charles Hatfield dead was reported & ordered to be recorded.

In the name of God. Amen. I Jeremiah Dren of the county of Southampton being in a low state of health but in perfect mind and memory, thanks be to God now calling to mind that it is appointed our for all men to die, do make & ordain this my last will and testament. Principally and first I commend my soul to Almighty God and my body to the Earth to be buried in a Christian like manner, and touching my worldly estate goods which it has pleased God to bless me with, I give in the following manner (to wit). I lend to my loving wife Mary Dren the plantation whereon I now
