

144.
I give to my grand children the orphans of my son Sam^l Westbrook, David Westbrook, Joel Westbrook, Samuel Westbrook, and Phebe Westbrook ten pounds each each to be raised out of my Estate, Likewise give to my grand son David Westbrook all my land lying on the north side of the new house branch except that above given to him and his heirs for ever.

I give to my loving wife Mary Westbrook the use of my plantations whereon I now live, during the term of her natural life, likewise two negroes her choice of all I hold, except them above given away, one feather bed & furniture, one horse and saddle & bridle at not less value than fifteen pounds, two cows & calves I sows & pigs.

I give to my wife my still and my copper kettle, one lot & hook, one duck Oven, one frying pan, three feather dishes, six pewter plates, six pewter spoons, one loom one woollen wheel & cards, axes and hoes &c. to make a crop and to hold the above during the term of her natural life, and at her death to be sold and divided in six equal parts one part I give to be equally divided between the orphans of my son Samuel Westbrook and one part to be divided between the children of my daughter Lucy Andrews deceased, and one part to the children of my daughter Mary Commaack deceased, and one part to my son John Westbrook and one part to my son Samuel Westbrooke and one part to my daughter Patty Vendom.

My will and desire is that all the remainder part of my Estate be it in what kind soever real or personal be sold and all my just debts paid and the remainder to be divided in six equal parts and one part I give to my son John Westbrook, and one part to my son Samuel Westbrooke and one part to my daughter Patty Vendom, and one part to the orphans of my son Samuel Westbrooke, and one part to the orphans of my daughter Lucy Andrews deceased, and one part to the orphans of my daughter Mary Commaack deceased.

I do appoint my sons John Westbrook and my son Samuel Westbrooke Executors of this my last will and testament in virtue whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this thirtieth day of November 1784.

Signed, published and declared in presence of

Arthur Foster
Henry Collier Foster
James Foster

Samuel Westbrook - 