last will and testament as follows

I give and devise unto my Daughter in law Mary now the Widow of my Son Jonathan Coker decd the use and profits of one third part of the plantation whereon my said Son Jonathan formerly lived with one third of one Hundred and forty acres of land adjoining and lying the said plantation for and during the term of her natural life bounded by a line which I have made and supposed to contain that quantity be the same more or less I give and devise unto my Grandson Jonathan Coker after the death of his Mother the aforesaid one third of the land and plantation herein before given to her for life also I devise the remaining two thirds of the said Lands and plantation bounded as above described to my said Grandson Jonathan Coker the whole to him and his heirs and assigns forever

I give and devise unto my Grandson James Coker Son of my deceased Son Jonathan Coker the plantation whereon I now live with one Hundred acres of land thence adjoining bounded by lines which I have made and supposed by me to contain that quantity whether the same be more or less to hold to him and his heirs and assigns forever and for the love and good will which I have for my wife Sarah (Coker my Wife and mine is that after her debts is paid the whole of my Estate that was her property in her widowhood that shall be found at my death shall return to her again to be at her disposal

I give and devise to my Grandson Wilson Coker five shillings to him and his heirs forever and all the rest of my estate of what nature or kind the same may be after the payment of my debts I give to be equally divided between such of the children of my Daughters Holland and Mary as shall be living
