

474

during her natural life the use of all my plantation except that part which my Son Jacob Darden now occupies with all the houses he now occupies or may hereafter build the stairway and the orchard he planted, and third part of my orchard, and a small field joining his called the out patch field provided he will keep a good dividing fence My desire is that my wife Phoebe Darden and my Son Jacob Darden who shall enjoy equal privilege in that part of my woodland which is not herein devised to my Sons Jonathan Darden James Darden and John Darden and for my wife Phoebe Darden to pay tax for fifty acres of the said land and my Son Jacob Darden the remainder thereof and after the death of my said wife I desire the said plantation and land may descend to my Son Jacob Darden to him and his heirs forever.

Item I leave to my beloved wife Phoebe Darden a piece of woodland being on the east side of the Cedar Swamp and bounded as follows Beginning at a Cypress standing in the run of said swamp, the lowest part of my land at John Dardens line, thence out of said swamp along John Dardens line to a point a corner tree, thence along a line of Split trunks to a brook in a branch thence the several courses of said branch to the run of the Cedar Swamp thence down said run to the first station for her use during her life to get fire wood & timber and her Son Jacob Darden he shall have a right to get fire wood and timber what she can spare him during her life and no longer and after her death I desire the said land should descend to my Son John Darden to him and his heirs forever.

Item I leave to my beloved wife Phoebe Darden one negro woman named Dorothy during her life and after her death I desire the said negro and increase if any may be equally divided amongst all my children.

Item I give unto my beloved wife Phoebe Darden all the Estate of any kind or any kind whatsoever which may fall to her from the Estate of her first Husband to her own disposal I also give her one bed & furniture one horse or mare (which she may choose) one calf one flax wheel (her choice) one woollen two prau ten dishes two Basons six plates chairs (such as are in my house) one Lin.