In the Name of God Amen. I Mary Murray of the County of Southampton & State of Virg^a being in perfect sound sense & memory do ordain & make this my last will & Testament Vt Lc. -
 Item I bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth Smith one hundred & thirteen Acres of land adjoining Boy^a & Barkham's land which said land I formerly purchased of the S^r Barkham. also four Negroes, to wit Len-Molley Eddy and Dina with their increase likewise one black Por-ten Cattle ten Sheep & one third part of the Hogs which shall be found of mine at my decease; under my new mark: also two walnut tables one Wash-desk & looking Glass two beds & furniture two Chests two trunks one case of bottles one copper Kettle two Iron pots one Dutch oven & sundry small necessities. The intent & meaning of this my last will & Testament is that I bequeath the above land & slaves, as also the enumerated articles to my daughter Eliz^a Smith during her natural life for her then son - William Alexander Smith's support & maintenance agreeable to my afore^d Daughters will & pleasure. At the decease of my daughter Eliz^a Smith, bequeath the afore^d land slaves & articles unto my grandson W^m Alexander Smith & his heirs lawfully begotten of his body but in case he the said W^m Alexander Smith should die without lawfully Issue then the afore^d land slaves & articles to return to the nearest in blood to his Mother Eliz^a Smith.

Item The residue of my stock of Cattle &c. under my new mark & what ever else of mine or wheresoever found after my decease to be equally divided between Mary Haswood & Sarah Maget of the Heirs of this Will. And I further direct and desire that there be no Inventory or Appraisement taken of my Estate. My last will and desire is, that John Harwood William Maget & Elizabeth Smith do act & qualify, as executors to this my last Will and testament, hereby revoking, annulling & making void all other Wills by me heretofore made. - In Witness whereof I the Testator hath hereunto set my hand & affixed my seal this seventeenth day of January & in the year our lord christ, One thousand seven hundred and ninety one.
