I Coral Drake of Southampton County Virginia being sick and weak of body but of sound sense and perfect mind and memory knowing the uncertainty of transitory life do think proper to make this my last will and testament in manner and form following.

I leave and bequeath unto my beloved wife Polly Drake the use and profits of all my plantations and lands until her death and no longer, I then after the decease of my wife Polly Drake give devise and bequeath unto my daughter Polly Drake my aforesaid plantations and lands to her and to her heirs forever but if she should die without issue heir of her own body, I then give devise and bequeath my aforesaid plantations and lands to be equally divided between my brothers Selas Drake and Arthur Drake & their heirs forever.

My just debts being paid, I give to my loving wife Polly Drake all the remaining part of my estate of every kind until her death after her death I give and bequeath the aforesaid and remainder part of my estate unto my daughter Polly Drake & to her heirs forever but if she should die before her mother I then give and bequeath the aforesaid remainder part of my estate to my wife Polly Drake and to her heirs forever.
