shall it so turn out that the profits arising from the use and labour of my Negroes and and the use and Occupancy of all my lands less my living wife, be insufficient to maintain and support all my children and the time shall arrive that it shall be necessary for my son William Henry to leave home and be boarded out to complete his education then at that time the sale of some corner of my lands or one or two Negroes is to take place as before directed, to raise money for that particular purpose and it is to be understood and I do hereby direct that so much of such monies as shall be expended in the education of my said son shall be deducted out of his share of the monies arising under the sales of my lands directed to be sold when he shall arrive to the age of twenty one years -
