

John N. Blunt die without lawful issue then and in that case I give the aforesaid lands and premises to my son William and his heirs, but should he in like manner die without lawful issue then and in that case I give the same to his several sisters and their issue lawfully begotten, to wit, to my respective daughters —

I lend to my beloved wife during her natural life or widowhood my negro man Bandy the Miller together with the use of one third part of my Grists in Southampton County, or in otherwards I give her the one third part of the profits thereof she bearing the like proportion of the expence; and at the termination of her right; I give the said mill seat with its appertinances to my son William and his heirs; to be controlled and subject to the same course of descent & inheritance as is directed in the first devise to the said William Blunt —

I desire that my lands in Granville and Porsan in N^o Carolina, my lands in Greenville adjoining those of Turner Williamson and others and my tract of Land in Southampton called Harrisers; may be sold by my executors, on a Credit at their discretion; and the monies arising to be equally divided among my daughters as they come to the age of Eighteen years or marry — I lend to my loving wife during her natural life or widowhood, for the purpose of raising, educating, and maintaining my children the use of all my Slaves and other personal estate not before disposed of; subject to a diminution of each child's part as they may come of age or marry — but should my wife deem it proper to marry, then and in that case I desire that twenty of the Slaves may be allotted to her of such ages, sexes, and qualities as she may select, hoping that a due regard will be had to a just and equitable value of the rest — My desire is that the following negroes, (viz, Patience, Isaac, Sarah, Phyllis, Sall, Old Ephraim, Tom, and David, may remain at my manner-plantation, subject to the control of my Wife during her natural life; and at her death that they and their increase may be equally divided between my sons John and William, (or the survivor of them), and their heirs forever —

In testimony of these presents I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 20th day of April one thousand eight hundred and seven; and hereby publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament revoking all former ones; and for the due performance and requisite of this trust — I do constitute and appoint John B. Turner Esq^r Blunt Senior and Henry Blow my executors and hope they
