The Estate not being finally settled in the lifetime of Absalom Williams (but is about to pass into the hands of Arthur Howe administrator de-that purpose) the former inconvenience still operates as a bar to a final settlement with the legatees aforesaid, for the amount of their several accounts as stated above. - We therefore are of opinion that those accounts as far as necessary to exchange the estate of Absalom Williams acc of the above balances of £492 14 11 1/4 should be paid by the representatives of said Absalom Williams to the said Arthur Howe, and that they should be help and used by him in a final settlement and distribution of the estate, which we respectfully submit to the County Court aforesaid. GWRM under our hands this 5th day of April 1809. Jacob Darden, Sept Butler
