

The estate of Alice B. Pierce and (particulars) in acc cur with Pierce Bros & Co

		£	s	d
1799 May	To paid clerk before testat	1	18	8 1/2
do	paid clerk front window testat	5	3	2 1/2
March 1800	paid clerk before testat for 1799	5	19	6
do	paid clerk of Southampton testat for 1800	8	10	—
1801 Jan	paid Sir John Bouverie his account	1	10	—
1812 March	paid clerk Southampton testat for 1800 for copying of a receipt &c	3	2	4 1/2
	also Sir John Bouverie's estate	—	—	—
	To the amount of Sir John Bouverie's account for sundry articles purchased at the sale of Alice B. Pierce's and sold by Michael Cobb the executor which he took in hand for and of his death it came into my hands as his executor which has finally turned out to be insolvent which account became due March 9 th 1799	100	10	1
	To Sir John Bouverie's account in things purchased at the same time and due at the same time and has come into my hands in the same manner and finally turned out to be insolvent	2	1	—
	To Matthew Pierce's account for sundry articles purchased at the same time and due at the same time and has come into my hands in the same manner and has finally turned out to be insolvent	—	10	—

To 5th class commission at 1/2 p. 19. 11 1/2

for

1800

To a balance on Thomas Scott's bond in his under obligation	1	16	8
By cash on said bond 1/2 p. 50	2	6	1/2
By interest on said bond against Thomas Scott	5	15	1/2
By cash on said bond	2	6	1/2
By interest on said bond against Peter	2	1	1/2
By cash on said bond	2	6	1/2

1802

March	To the amount of Sir John Bouverie's account for sundry articles purchased at the sale of Alice B. Pierce's which Michael Cobb the executor failed to take out for and consequently he still has the same and I have accordingly changed in the certificate amount principal due 1 st March 1799 being insolvent	100	10	1
	To Sir John Bouverie's account for articles purchased at the same time and due at the same time and has come into my hands in the same manner and has finally turned out to be insolvent	2	1	—
	By Matthew Pierce's account for sundry articles purchased at the same time and due at the same time and has come into my hands in the same manner and has finally turned out to be insolvent	—	10	—

£199 19 1/2

In obedience to an order of the High Court of Chancery bearing date 11th June 1811 the subscribers have examined the said and settled the foregoing account as appears to us just and right. The debts amounting to one hundred and seventy four pounds seven pence and three farthings and the estate to one hundred and seventy nine pounds 19 1/2 pence under the hand and seal of the said court of Chancery 1811

Attest the foregoing account of the said estate which is the account of the said estate as appears to us just and right. The said court of Chancery 1811