At a Court held for the County of Southampton the 11th Day of January 1813 A writing purporting to be the last Will & Testament of Henry Smith decd. was presented in Court and Geo. Turner one of the Executors therein named renounced his right of executor and was examined as a Witness and it appearing from the Testimony of said Geo. Turner and other Witnesses examined by the Court that the said paper contains a disposition of the personal estate of the said Henry Smith decd. agreeing with what he declared to the said Witnesses to be the disposition he had made thereof, Moreover that the said paper was written by the said Geo. Turner by the direction of the said Henry Smith & afterwards approved by him and Moreover and that he the said Henry Smith did not express to any of the said Witnesses in his lifetime any wish to alter his said Will except as to a tract of Land purchased by him after the making thereof therefore it is considered by the Court that the said Last Will & Testament be Established as the Will of the said Henry Smith decd. so far and so far only as to pass the personal estate to which the said Henry Smith decd. was intitled - and on the motion of Eshelwood Smith one of the Executors named in the said Will probat is granted him thereof whereupon the said Eshelwood Smith gave bond (the Will directing no Security to be given by the Exor) and thereupon the said Eshelwood qualifies according to Law.
