

my Negro Woman Cloc: and I also hereby declare My Executors that at the beginning of every year—say at the 1st day of January in each year shall pay all of and deliver over to my wife as much of the Produce of every description made on my Plantations as will in their Judgment be sufficient for the support and maintenance of her my Child or children and the estate now given and lent to her—but my intention is that this support or maintenance shall and with her accommodation

I give to my son John Wilkinson all my land lying and being in the County of Southampton except what I have lent to my wife—which he is also to have at her death—also one half of all the Negroes that may belong to my estate at the time he arrives to the age of twenty one years—and also one half of all the stock of every description that may belong my estate when he arrives at the age of twenty one and also one half of the annual profits or income—Net of my whole estate untill the time he arrives to the before mentioned age to him and his heirs forever.

I give to the Child with which my wife is now Pregnant Provided it be a boy my Plantations lying in Southampton County on which Mrs. M. D. now lives—also the other half of my estate to be divided between him and my son John in the manner—and at the same time that I have directed my son John to secure his half I also give to my said Child if a boy—the sum of five thousand dollars to be paid to him by my son John when he arrives at the age of twenty one years—This is Injoined on John to perform at that time to make their estates equal as near as possible—and Provide the said Child should be a girl I give her the said Plantation in Southampton County (and one fourth part of all my Negroes that may belong to my estate when my son John arrives to the age of twenty one and also her maintenance and Education out of my estate till she may marry or arrive at the age of eighteen and in a case it be a Girl the other fourth part of Negroes that I should have given was it a boy—I give to my son John Wilkinson and to his heirs forever

It is my sincere will and desire that should one of my Children depart this life under the age of twenty one years or without lawful heir that in that case the One that may be living at the time shall to all intents and Purposes have the whole estate of the One so dying—and in case all my Children should expire