

Then I bind unto my dearly beloved wife Nancy Barrette the use of one negro man named Sammy, during her natural Life or Widowhood and should my wife Nancy bring forth a child to Live, which she is now Pregnant with, It is my desire, and I also give and bequeath unto that ^{child} at the death of its mother Nancy or marriage, the above mentioned and named negro man Sammy, to it and its heirs forever. But should the child die, then in that case, it is my will and desire that my Daughter Fanny Barrette, have the above named negro man Sammy to her and to her heirs forever -

Then, I also bind unto my dearly beloved wife, Nancy Barrette one feather bed and furniture, during her natural Life or widowhood. I also wish and desire, that my Tract of Land whereon I now Live, be equally divided, and bind unto my beloved wife Nancy Barrette, one half of the said Land during her natural Life or widowhood, and at the death or marriage of my said wife Nancy it is my desire, that the Child she is now pregnant with, should it Live to come to the age of twenty one years, then and in that case it is my will and desire that my Daughter Fanny Barrette, have all the half of my Land above mentioned, together with the feather bed and furniture as above mentioned to her and to her heirs forever.

Then I also give and bequeath unto my dearly beloved wife Nancy Barrette, ten Barrels of Corn and five hundred Weight of Pork to her and her heirs forever being for her support for one year. Then, I give and bequeath unto my Daughter Fanny Barrette one Negro man named Messy, one Negro Woman named Mason and one negro boy named Archer, to her and to her heirs forever also one feather bed and furniture, and the other half of my Land unto her and to her heirs forever -

And now Lastly it is my will and desire, that my negro man named Solomon together with all the residue of my estate of every kind whatsoever, be sold for the express purpose of the payment of all my Just debts, and the surplus of the Sale of same to my will and desire that it should return from the hands of my executor to my Daughter Fanny Barrette, to her and to her heirs forever. And Lastly I do now nominate and appoint my friends James Jones and Arthur Bowring, my whole and Sole executor to this my Last will and Testament, hereby revoking all