

who finds on an investigation the following (with) that in the month of March 1868 the personal estate of James Johnson decd was wholly sold by John Crumpler who was administrator the will annexed of the sd James Johnson decd by and with the assent (of all sums) of the widow's legates therein concerned. Though the will of the said James Johnson had been duly proved & recorded wherein he had bequeathed and devoted the whole Estate amongst the various objects of his charity leaving nothing for the payments of his debts or other charges. That the personal Estate, debts collected or Interest thereon charged amounted in all to £146. 2. 6 That the necessary expenditures by the admr including commissions on the Estate allowed him did amount to the sum of 53. 11. 3

This sum of 53. 11. 3 was distributed amongst the legates 93. 11. 3 That the Estate was wholly bought by the widow & legates except £50. 0. 4 part thereof

Went to other persons which sum with the £13. 13. 8 distributed by the admr making in all that remained in the hands of the admr to meet and discharge the debts & charges - consequently the cash in the hands of the admr exclusive of the portion given by the legates for purchases made at the sale were far inadequate to the purpose of meeting the various claims against the Estate rendering it indispensable in the Admr to demand of the legates their several proportions to make up such deficiency according to the magnitude of their several legacies and on stipulating their several proportional parts it is found that Tabitha Johnson should contribute the sum of £29. 3. 0 That Matthew Luter for his part should contribute 9. 9. 6 James Johnson son of James Johnson decd for his part £5. 5. 1 which sum added to the above 9. 13. 8 the sum of £42. 17. 7 by the admr retained £9. 13. 8 £52. 11. 3

In the necessary contribution for payment of debts & no notice is taken of the amount of the widows purchase at the sale: since she bought only at out of the Estate which she held but a short time, and died and after her death the children of James Johnson (the same legates herein mentioned) divided the whole of that part of the Estate amongst themselves & thereby had the full benefit of that part of James Johnsons Estate amongst them and therefore should make up the whole deficiency themselves according to the above Statement Agreeable to the foregoing statement the legates should pay to John Crumpler the Admr as follows
