Jos Marks
Will

In the name of amen I Joseph Marks of the County of Southampton being in a low state of health but of sound mind do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following
I, My wife and desire is that at my deceased my plantation be broke up and all my personal estate be sold at publick Auction in order to pay all my just debts except those debts which I give to my daughter Susan Marks with their contents, My will further is that the plantation be rented out for the benefit of daughter Susan Marks my desire is that if the personal estate and the rent of the plantation is not sufficient to pay my just debts and support my daughter Susan Marks then I leave it in the power of my Executors to see the plantation whereon I now live taking care of the balance that may remain for the use and benefit of my daughter Susan Marks to whom I give it my desire further is that if my daughter Susan Marks should deceased wither age or without issue and there should be any part of my estate that I have given my above mentioned daughter that hath not been expended upon her, my desire is that such remainder be equally divided between Rebecca Marks and Thomas Marks children of William Marks in case my executor shall not see cause to see the plantation then I give it to my daughter Susan Marks and her heirs but in case of the death of her they then to be divided between the above named Rebecca and Thomas Marks and their heirs forever, and last I do appoint my friend Francis Risley my whole and sole executor to this my last will and testament
In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this thirteenth day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen
