Mary Hall Pollard

(Mrs. James Claiborne Pollard)

who, as librarian and archivist
in the Virginia State Library, helped countless thousands search the records; who daily gave generously of her time and vast knowledge of Virginiana to further the efforts of those searchers.

Preface

Southampton County was authorized by an Act passed in 1748 but the actual dividing of Isle of Wight County did not take place until a year later. The second Act was passed by the General Assembly on 30 April 1749.

Order Book No. I states that the first court was held at the home of Elizabeth Ricks on 8 June 1749. The first clerk of Southampton County was Richard Kello. Benjamin Ruffin was the first sheriff. John Person and Joseph Gray took the oaths of Justice of the Peace and Judge in Chancery, administered to them by Jesse Brown and Benjamin Simmons. Nathaniel Ridley, Thomas Jarrell, Etheldred Taylor, Howell Edmonds, Jesse Brown, Benjamin Simmons, Albrington Jones, James Ridley, Peter Butts, Samuel Blow and Thomas Williamson, constituted Gentlemen Justices.

The Court appointed Benjamin Branch, Arthur Arrington, Joseph Cobb, Samuel Kindred and John Brown as constables.

The new county is one of 13 that Virginia names in honor of prominent Englishmen (Long p63). Sir Henry Wriothesley, Earl of Southampton (Robinson p 191). Sir Henry Wriothesley was the only patron William Shakespeare ever acknowledged. To him he dedicated "Venus and Adonis" and "The Rape of Lucrece".

The Earl of Southampton, born 6 October 1573; died 10 November 1624, was made a Knight of the Garter 1603 (Shaw's "Knights of England" I, 30). He was called Lord Wriothesley until created Earl of Southampton 21 July 1603. He was Councillor of the Virginia Company 23 May 1609; Treasurer and later Governor until his death in 1624. (Complete Peerage 2nd Ed. Vol. XII pp 128-131).

The county seat of Southampton is Courtland, as pleasant a village as ever was. The priceless records are presided over by Miss Besse Thomas Shands who is the soul of courtesy, and helpfulness.

My first visit to Courtland was with Mrs. Lewis L. Chapman of Smithfield, Virginia. She was abstracting the wills while I was madly copying the marriages. We had the happiest time working from "kin to can't" as our colored people say.

Should any of you who read this want the Wills of Southampton, beautifully abstracted and published by Mrs. Chapman, her address is "Carcassonne" Smithfield, Virginia. Five dollars a volume. (You're welcome, Blanche.)

Some names are, inevitably, used interchangeably as Kirby = Kerby, Kinchen = Kitchen, Joyner = Joiner, Wilson = Willson, Wester = Westray, Garner = Gardner and Luter and Suter are almost impossible to distinguish one from the other.

Mr. J. W. Dudley of the Virginia Archives, Richmond, has kindly checked all discrepancies for me.

This second edition of the Southampton Marriages corrects all the omissions and errors in the first edition (1948) and adds ten years to the scope of the work. I hope you like it.
